Srinagar (drive) – Pahalgam (trek) – Tulian Marag (camp)

Pick up from Srinagar and drive to Pahalgam.

The purpose of this day is to acclimatize and enjoy the beautiful valley. You would be walking through the forest on a path till Baisaran. This day we would encounter 2-3 kms steep ascents twice during our trek to Tulian Marag (Tulian Lake base camp). We would be walking through dense alpine forests. Coming from personal experience, the entire trek is very exciting and filled with visual surprises at every step of the way. Tulian Marag is a perfect camping site and very popular with the “Bakkarwals” and Himalayan Marmots. There was a time when Marmots used to freely roam in the valley in abundance and they are territorial but harmless

Tulian Marag – Tulian Lake (glacial lake) – Tulian Marag

The distance to the lake from the campsite is approximately 5 kms and takes about 3 hours to reach this majestic and oddly shaped glacial lake. It takes about 40 minutes to reach the top side of the valley and the excitement starts bubbling up to get the first few glimpses of the lake. But one would need to really push themselves up the steep protective wall of boulders and loose rocks to get the first sight of the lake. It is refreshing feeling to stand at the top and get a clear view of the glacial water body. The water is glistening and the color of the water is blue and green. After enjoying our packed lunch, we return to Tulian Marag to rest for the night.

Tulian Marag – Pahalgam

A beautiful descent through the Alpine Forest takes you through the thick fauna. It is a sensory overload, to walk through such a forest, due to all the smells and fragrances of wild herbs, bushes, shrubs and the trees. Until we reach Baisaran, a meadow, which is a famous camping place amongst the “Bakkarwals”. We would be straight away moving for Pahalgam.
