Srinagar – Kupwara – Lolab Valley – Kalaroos Caves – Kupwara (overnight stay)

We leave early morning from Srinagar to Kupwara and reach there via Khumriyal. We will explore Lolab valley on our way, an oval shaped valley which is a home of many ancient springs. The valley is covered with dense pine and fir forests. Fruit trees such as apples, cherry, peach, apricot and walnut are common in the valley.

Next we will do a short day hike to the famous Kalaroos or Satbaran caves, believed to be a temple built by the Pandavas to worship idols placed on all the seven doors. Folklore is that a narrow path from here leads to the mammoth caves that connect Kashmir valley to Russia, hence derived from the word Quila-e-Roos (Russian Fort)

Overnight stay in a home stay or government guest house.
